

2013 CSPA CROWN FINALISTS

36 2012 HERFF JONES YEARBOOKS NAMED

Herff Jones once again led the way with more Finalists than any other printing company when CSPA (Columbia Scholastic Press Association) posted the list of Finalists for its Crown Awards program for scholastic (middle, junior and senior high school) and collegiate publications at its official website on December 17, 2012. In addition to the 36 books printed by Herff Jones, 14 books printed by Jostens and 12 each printed by Walsworth and Balfour made the list. Fresh Ink, Friesens and a campus press combined to add the final four yearbooks. A total of 1,344 newspapers, magazines and yearbooks published during the 2011-2012 academic year were eligible for the 2013 Crown Awards program. A new hybrid category recognizing newspaper and magazine programs that combine digital and print work was introduced this year. Since the CSPA dates its awards by the year in which they are given, this announcement concerns the 2013 Crown Awards.

A grand total of 210 Crowns will be presented this year. Of these, 167 Crowns will be given to scholastic publications and 43 Crowns to collegiate publications. In all, 78 yearbooks will be honored.

Crown Award Finalists are guaranteed to receive either a Gold or Silver Crown Award in March 2013. No further judging will take place. Scholastic and Collegiate Crown Awards are presented at separate ceremonies at the CMA and CSPA conventions in New York City on two different days in March, 2013.
