

2013 NSPA PACEMAKER FINALISTS

29 HERFF JONES BOOKS NAMED

Herff Jones once again led the way with more Finalists than any other printing company (and all other companies combined!!!) when the National Scholastic Press Association posted its list of Finalists for their Pacemaker awards programs for 2013 yearbooks at their official website. In addition to the 29 books printed by Herff Jones, 12 books printed by Jostens, 6 printed by Balfour and 5 books printed by Walsworth made the lists. Two other books printed by Friesens and Fresh Ink also made the lists.

These Pacemaker Finalists will be recognized at the upcoming JEA/NSPA convention. After that recognition, the association will announce the names of yearbooks which they deem Pacemakers. No further judging will take place. The middle school and high school awards ceremony will be on April 12, 2014 in San Diego.

Collegiate Pacemaker Finalists will be announced at a later date and will be presented on November 1, 2014 at the National College Media Convention in Philadelphia. Herff Jones schools are in GREEN.
