

2014 CSPA CROWN WINNERS

The Columbia Scholastic Press Association announced its top awards for collegiate and scholastic publications produced during the 2012-2013 school year during the College Media Advisers and CSPA conventions held in NYC March 12-21, 2014.

A total of 1,344 magazines, newspapers, yearbooks and online publications as well as digital/print hybrid publications of the current CSPA members were eligible to enter the Crown Awards.

In all, 84 publications (13 newspapers, 22 yearbooks, 22 magazines and 27 digital or hybrid magazines/newspapers) received Gold Crown Awards while 106 other publications received the second highest CSPA award, known as the Silver Crown. Gold Crowns have been presented annually since 1983, and Silver Crowns have been given since 1984.

Yearbooks printed by Herff Jones won 11 of 22 yearbook Gold Crowns and 10 of 30 Silver Crowns. In addition to the 21 books printed by Herff Jones, Jostens produced 10 Crown winners, Balfour and Walsworth each added nine. The remaining books were printed by Friesens, MultiMedia Technologies and a local press.

Herff Jones schools are green.
