

CONTRABAND WORDS QUIZ

1. List two punctuation marks you shouldn't use in your copy.

2. Why should you follow "many, some, several and students" with students' names?

Directions for 3–6: Circle the contraband word/words in the following sentences, then rewrite to make the sentences stronger. Add details you'd want to include in your story.

3. At Dude Be Nice headquarters, Lopez realized he could really change campus culture.

4. This year, the student council planned the dance to welcome students to campus.

5. The class made tons of cookies. Other people made awesome cakes.

6. The Eastside Eagles won the basketball state championship in the last seconds of the game.

Directions for 7–10: Write follow-up questions for the following possible responses.

7. “I’m proud of the dedication the tennis team showed this year.”

8. “Spirit Week came together because of the committee’s hard work.”

9. “The cast of the musical really bonded together as a unit. We were like a family.”

10. “This was a year to remember.”