HOW TO YBK

WELCOME BACK!

Ready or not, it's time to get started on the yearbook. We know everyone's schedules may be a bit different, but we hope these emails will help you start the year strong and support you with helpful information throughout the year. Let's go!

1. Learn and teach YBK

Our How to Yearbook teaching resources are easily accessed by going to LearnYBK.com. There, you'll find 12 sections that start with a PDF of the printed booklets and a PowerPoint you can use in the classroom. To order hard copies, click here.

2. Embrace a checklist

We love being able to check things off a to-do list. Our checklists are also broken into the same levels as the curriculum so you can tackle what you're able to. Think of these as guidelines.

3. New Advisers: This one's for you

If you're totally new to yearbook, we suggest you start by taking a bit of time to explore the world of Yearbook Discoveries. Head over to the Resources tab to find our page dedicated to new advisers with the need-to-know info as you get into this year.

KEEP IN MIND

As you review the Herff Jones resources, you'll find we have so many options at your fingertips. Don't try to do it all! Decide what works best for you and your students, then incorporate bits and pieces as you wish.

Love reminders? Need a mental refresh every so often?

QUICK LINKS

Be sure to check these out, too.

1. Learn the terms and lingo by checking out the Words to Know section.
2. Check out Portfolio volume 27 online to get your dose of yearbook inspiration.
3. Feeling a little lost already? Give this helpful guide a quick read as you break down our resources.
