

Have fun this spooky season!

Have fun this spooky season! We know mid-October can get crazy with upcoming deadlines, book and ad sales and teaching all the things. If you need to slow down and take a step back, we have a few ways to give your staff a reset.

Encourage them to submit their photos to be featured on the My HJ login screens, social media and more! Share this link: herff.ly/submitphotos

Fall Sales Fun: Dedicate time for a fun sales campaign to promote book or ad sales! Bulletin board decorating is an easy hands-on activity for your students to show off their creativity. This may be a good time to create a promo code in eBusiness for a discounted yearbook.

A reminder to use promo codes for special occasions and to create a sense of urgency to buy a book while it's on sale. Read these do's and don'ts.

Staff Bonding: Plan for a no-work class to spend time celebrating your successes so far this school year. Grab some pumpkins (fake pumpkins work too!), paint and paintbrushes for a mini-art session.

These could be used for book sales or just a fun take-home gift. Let your students show off their Picasso skills and tag @hjyearbook on Instagram, so we can share!
