

ADVISER ASSISTANCE

YBK ALL DAY

'Tis the season

Bring your staff together to celebrate meeting first deadlines, covering events and students and making it through the first half of the year. Plus, dedicating time for brain breaks will have your staffers ready to go for deadlines after the new year.

It's party time! Bring all the food. Wear the tacky sweaters. Plan a small gift giving if it works for your staff. Play all the holiday music.

Don't forget about coverage during break. Remind your staffers that events still happen when school is out. Brainstorm any winter sports tournaments, holiday parades or anything that may involve your school. There might be something cool to cover.

Complete your last deadlines of 2023. Don't forget to submit pages ready to go before you clock out. An on-time deadline submission is one of the best gifts to give your YBK team because it helps to solidify that all-important delivery date!

Take the time to sign off and check out. We mean it when we suggest you recharge your batteries this winter break. Find your new show or movie to watch or cuddle up with a good book. Enjoy your time with family and friends.
