VARSITY YEARBOOK

Calm your coverage worries

Final deadline season for spring-delivery books is coming! First, take a deep breath — you've got this! We see the eDesign confetti on the horizon.

If you're feeling the pressure to squeeze in those last-minute events, a quick-turn supplement can be a game-changer. Supplements are ordered separately from the yearbook with a faster turnaround. They're an easy way to keep the coverage going without the deadline stress! Plus, they're a great final assignment to assess students' skills.

Three Uses for a Supplement

- Extend your coverage: Capture spring sports, prom and graduation, or add student interviews and features that didn't fit in the main book.
- Celebrate seniors: Dedicate pages to senior quotes, superlatives, class trip photos and memorable moments.
- Boost your budget: Sell extra business or student ads to cover costs or turn the supplement into a fundraiser.

A supplement is an easy way to add value without the stress. Ready to explore the options? Talk with your rep.

eDesign Tip of the Week:

If you create a quick-turn supplement, you'll receive another order in eDesign. No worries — you won't need to start from scratch activating fonts, colors and templates. Watch this video tutorial to learn how to export your settings.
